THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. THIS FOLLOWS THE HIPAA ACT OF 1996 (HEALTH INSURANCE PORTABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT)

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We must follow the practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect April 15, 2003 and will remain in effect until we replace it. We reserve the right to change it at any time.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment and healthcare operations. We will always use the minimum amount of information necessary. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you. We may also disclose to our staff members involved in your care.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization: In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

To Your Family and Friends: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so. You may notify us verbally.

Persons Involved In Care: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays or other similar forms of health information.

Marketing Health-Related Services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: Your health information may be disclosed for the purposes of a judicial or administrative proceeding only when accompanied by a court or administrative order or grand jury subpoena.

Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others.

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institutions or law enforcement official's having lawful custody of protected health information of an inmate or patient under certain circumstances.

Patient Rights

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. We will charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for expenses such as copies and staff time. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the front of this Notice. If you request copies, we will charge you $1.00 for each page, $5.00 per quarter hour for staff time to locate and copy your health information, and postage if any copies are to be mailed to you. A summary or an explanation of your health information can be prepared for a fee.

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes, other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain other activities, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you requested this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost based fee for responding to these additional requests. This request must be in writing.

Special Privacy Protection: You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency). (To do this you must fill out a Request for Special Privacy Protection.)

Open Bay Policy: In some treatment areas of our office, treatment is in an open bay, where some conversation may be overheard.

Alternative Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. (You must make your request in writing). Your request must specify the alternative means or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means or location you requested. Our office policy is to contact you at all of the phone numbers you have provided us, and to leave messages on recorders. It is also our policy to send mailings for check-ups, newsletters, cards, and invitations to our special events.

Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend your health information. (Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended.) We may deny your request under certain circumstances. Chart entries may not be removed. The amendment will be written and dated as a separate entry.

Protecting Your Health Information: Our staff has been trained to be compliant with our policies. Our business associates are contractually bound to protect health information, HIPAA requires record retention of 6 years.

Questions and Complaints

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have any questions or concerns, please contact our privacy officer who is assigned the responsibility of implementing and maintaining the HIPAA Privacy and Security Rule's requirements.

If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, you may file a written complaint form upon request. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services upon request.

We support your right to privacy of your health information. We will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the Department of Health and Human Services.
